FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the meeting dates for the conference?
September 11 – 12, 2020

What is the expected attendance?
With more than 30 medical organizations coming together to provide the newest research findings and education related to the coronavirus pandemic, the virtual event will be promoted to a vast number of medical professionals across multiple professional backgrounds.

What is included in the virtual exhibit booth?
There are three various booth packages to chose from. Please visit https://www.sccm.org/Education-Center/COVID19What-is-Next/Industry-Partners for information about what each package includes.

What time zone will the meeting take place in?
Central Standard Time

What is the platform being used for the virtual meeting?
The entire COVID19: What’s Next meeting, including the virtual exhibit hall will be hosted by Cadmium.

How will I set up my virtual booth?
After registering for an exhibit booth you will be able to add all the booth assets included with your virtual space. The set up is user friendly and offers step by step instructions.

Are there advertising and Sponsorship opportunities available?
Yes! There are multiple opportunities available and they can be found on our website https://www.sccm.org/Education-Center/COVID19What-is-Next/Industry-Partners or by contacting dng@sccm.org.

How long will the virtual platform be available?
The virtual platform will be available through August 2021.

Is there an attendee post mailing list available?
Yes, you can find that information under advertising.

Does my virtual booth come with lead retrieval?
The premium booth package comes with lead retrieval.

What is the hashtag to use in social media promotion?
#COVIDready

What is the deadline for finalizing my booth information before attendees have access?
The meeting platform will go live to attendees on September 8, 2020.